

PR Announcement about Daddy Daughter Valentines Dance sponsored by Northside Rotary Club
Saturday, Feb. 2 from 6:30-9:30 pm at National Guard Armory

Valentines day approaches and thoughts turn to hearts, flowers, and Dad doing the Macarena. At least this is what you think of if you've ever attended the Citywide Daddy Daughter Valentines day dance. The 3rd annual dance, sponsored by Northside Rotary club, will be held Saturday, Feb. 2nd at the National Guard Armory in Tallahassee from 6:30-9:30pm.

There will be music supplied by DJ "Justin" as well as dance lessons and exhibition by Dr. Caroline (Kay) Picart, 2006 US Open Pro Am champion dancer with the nationally renowned Arthur Murray Dance Studios staff. Dads learned how to lift their daughters last year and that was a sight to see!

JC Penny's portrait studio is offering a free portrait sitting for dads and daughters and 2 complimentary sheets of prints to those who show their ticket.

Proceeds from the event will help fund various community service projects including the North Florida Rotary Youth Camp for disabled children, Relay for Life, Hands Helping Anglers, and many other worthy projects.

Tickets are $30 per couple plus $10 for any additional daughters. To purchase tickets or for more information, check out our website www.rotaryddd.com or call 514-6243. Tickets are also being sold at all area Applebees restaurants, Tallahassee Hancock bank branches or at Famous Dave's BBQ on Capital Circle NE.

Make it an evening for her to remember! Dress up in your best, buy a pretty party dress and corsage for her, take her out to dinner first, maybe rent a limo. Show her how a lady is treated on a special date. She will know that daddy loves her like no other!
